Parish Mission Statement

We, the parishioners of St. Thomas More Catholic Church, Mooresville, IN, as members of the Body of Christ, and inspired by our patron saint commit ourselves...

- To grow in understanding and living God's word and sacraments as defenders of the Catholic faith
- To be responsible stewards of God's gifts/blessings and grow in generosity of those gifts
- To serve those in need and reflect God's mercy in all our efforts

A leper came to Jesus and begged him:
"If you wish, you can make me clean."
Jesus stretched out his hand,
touched him, and said,
"I do will it. Be made clean."
The leprosy left him immediately.

Looking for a way to deepen your faith in a more missional and personal way?

Please consider mentoring an adult participant of St. Vincent de Paul's Changing Lives Forever Class which has been impacting individuals faced with poverty by teaching them the skills to build better lives. After participants graduate from the 18 week course, they become eligible to receive a mentor through Trusted Mentors, an organization that focuses on reversing homelessness and incarceration through the power of relationships. St. Vincent de Paul has partnered with Trusted Mentors to train and coach mentors on how to provide support for their adult mentees and is looking for individuals like you who simply have a desire to give back and passion for helping God's community. For more information on becoming a mentor, please contact 317-985-5041 or visit www.trustedmentors.org

Jacob C. Mattingly was recognized by the National Catholic Committee on Scouting for completing the Ad Altare Dei religious emblem program. The purpose of the Ad Altare Dei (to the altar of God) program is to help Scouting's Catholic Youth of the Roman Rite develop a fully Christian way of life in the faith community. By focusing on the seven sacraments, the program hopes to help the Scouts grow in their spiritual experience as it relates to God and church. The emblem was presented February 4th, 2018 at Saints' Peter and Paul Cathedral, by Archbishop Charles C. Thompson.

Seven Last Words As Jesus hung on the cross, he uttered seven last words of great meaning to those who contemplate his passion and death. This online prayer commemorates each of the Seven Last Words in a separate meditation.

For centuries The Seven Last Words have been built into various forms of devotion for the consideration and consolation of the Christian people. English Catholics of the late Middle Ages were especially devoted to this pious exercise and passed it on in latter-day prayer books. Hear the famous English mystic, Julian of Norwich:

Suddenly it came into my mind that I ought to wish for the second wound, that our Lord, of his gift and of his grace, would fill my body full with recollection and feeling of his blessed Passion, as I had prayed before, for I wished that his pains might be my pains, with compassion which would lead to longing for God. . . . And at this suddenly I saw the red blood trickling down from under the crown, all hot, flowing freely and copiously, a living stream, just as it seemed to me that it was at the time when the crown of thorns was thrust down upon his blessed head. . . . With this sight of his blessed Passion and with his divinity, I saw that this was strength enough for me, yes, and for all living creatures who will be protected from all the devils from hell and from all spiritual enemies. This devotion may be spread over a week, commemorating one of the seven last words each day, or it may be prayed as a whole devotion in a single day. The text is from A Catholic Book of Hours and Other Devotions by William G. Storey.

Tim Muldoon writes that, "Life in Christ demands the same kind of vigilance, preparation, and training that a person undertakes as an athlete." This Lent, become a spiritual athlete and join Tim for The Ignatian Workout for Lent. Each Monday he'll share audio reflections accompanied by suggestions for prayer and action. Based on the book of the same name, the online retreat begins the week of Ash Wednesday and continues through Easter Week.

Wild Goose Adult Group Bible Study Begins Feb. 21 @ 7pm, Continues each Wed. Evening Pray. . . Come Holy Spirit. At this very moment, stop and ask the Holy Spirit to come to you. The Wild Goose is a work of the Holy Spirit, which is awakening in the hearts of all those participating God's love and transforming power. This is a love that has been revealed to us by Jesus Christ and that leads us to our heavenly Father. As you walk through this series I will continually be praying that you will encounter the Holy Spirit and that the Spirit will breathe life into your very being. shocker@stm-church.org
