Thanksgiving

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Holiday season is here again! I can't believe it's one year from Thanksgiving last year. It's one of our busiest days of the year, traveling, Thanksgiving dinner, shopping and so on. It's a wonderful occasion for Thanksgiving to the Lord and those we are indebted to. Learning from our longstanding tradition, it should be a national day of thanksgiving as intended by our great leaders like Abraham Lincoln who proclaimed a national day of Thanksgiving during the Civil War. The turkey, the potatoes, cranberries and pumpkin pie should remind us of our legendary past and to Thank God for this great respect and generosity of the pilgrims of Plymouth and Wampanoag people. Very often Thanksgiving turns out to be great days of family reunion too. I pray that you all have a very Happy Thanksgiving. May the Lord bless you all with safe travels for those who are traveling; may those who are shut-ins be remembered, honored and blessed and may your hearts be filled with Thanksgiving to God and to one another.

God Bless America

God Bless you all.

Your brother in Gratitude,

Fr. Francis J. Kalapurackal
