Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

God chooses the weak and makes them strong by the outpouring and generous gifts of His graces. The calling of Simon Peter in the Gospel this weekend is similar to the call and commissioning of Prophet Isaiah in the first reading. Both Peter and Isaiah are overwhelmed by a sense of their own sinfulness and inadequacy. Each of them, however, experiences the overwhelming forgiving and merciful love of their master and they are sent on a mission to preach that mission of mercy in the world. No one is called a disciple/apostle because of one's merits but rather depends on the mercy and grace of the master who calls. Paul recognized; "My grace is sufficient for you" (2Cor 12:9). In the OT, humanity was unfit for the divine-no man could stand in God's presence and live (Ex 33:20). But in Jesus, we are made able to speak with Him face-to-face, to taste His word on our tongue. At every Mass the priest, before the proclamation of the Gospel, asks God to cleanse his lips and heart that he might worthily proclaim the Gospel. The response to God's call involves a total self surrender to God's grace and strength rather than counting on one's own abilities and strengths. We are what we are by the grace of God and my strength comes from Him who called me. All of us are called to share in the Lord's ministries in some way—and all that the Lord needs from us is our AVAILABILITY and NOT our ABILITIES.

May all of us who are called respond and surrender to God's grace.

Blessings,

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Francis J. Kalapurackal
