a good measure, packed together,
shaken down, and overflowing,
will be poured into your lap.

Luke 6:38

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

You may be wondering if I'm writing these notes from the Holy Land but it is Maureen who got me to do it way ahead of time. We are a total of 39 people traveling in and around the Holy Land. In every place I visit, my first Intention is for STM and all of you who have spiritual intentions requested. May the Lord continue to bless each one of you and our parish as a whole.

Marianne and Yenly will take care of the office in the absence of all others who are away on the pilgrimage. I am sure they will take very good care of you. The Franciscan Missionaries of the Mother Redeemer Farm in Bloomington will cover the weekend Masses. Please keep us in prayer just as we keep you all in prayer.

This weekend we are reminded of the forgiving love-love that loves those who do harm to us. This is perhaps one of the hardest virtues to practice-love-to bless those who curse you; pray for those who mistreat you; to show the person who strikes you on one cheek the other one as well. Only forgiving love can do this.

May God grant us strength to bless those who persecute us and do us harm. We pray that as a parish family we are blessed with this grace of forgiving love.

Blessings,

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Francis J. Kalapurackal

Vocations Ministry

Each weekend, we'd like a parishioner to take home a Traveling Vocations Cross prayer kit and commit to daily prayer for a week. At the end of the week, simply bring the kit back to Mass for the next person to take home. The kit contains a small wood cross to set on your table as a reminder, prayer guides, and informational booklets and books about vocations. This week Michael & Nanci Tessmer will take the basket.
