Parish Mission Statement

We, the parish family of St. Ann Catholic Church of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, exist to love God and one another, to grow in our personal relationships and in our Lord, and to strengthen our community through prayer and worship.

As Christians, we are committed to reaching out to those in need in the larger southwestern Marion County area; and to demonstrate our concerns for the broader universal church and the Archdiocese of Indianapolis in terms of sanctity of life, social justice, peace and love.

Steeped in the traditional faith and Catholic heritage of our founding members, we pledge our individual talents to harmoniously work in Christ's image for the growth and betterment of our community.

We accept the challenge of active stewardship of both our parish programs and property with time, talent and sacrificial giving and we pledge to preserve this legacy for future generations.

December 8, 2019 Second Sunday of Advent

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Prophet Isaiah prophesied about a Messianic era of peace. The first reading this weekend explains in Chapter 11:6ff: the wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together and the little child shall lead them...They will NOT HURT or destroy on all my holy mountain, for the earth will be full of knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea. This is what the book of Revelation tells us in Ch. 21:1, 4, “Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth” as in the paradise before the fall of man.

The world is so much in need of His peace and harmony. The beginning of all peace lies in the heart of each one of us. We pray that the true peace that Christ promises is possible for those who love God and His Son Jesus; those whose hearts are open to the knowledge of God and His Truth. Those who seek Christ and His truths of the Gospel will be blessed with His peace. This is what we sing in the Gloria of the Angels: Peace to men of Goodwill and the Glory to God will shine in each one of us. May we all have the openness to His grace and truth and may our minds and hearts be ready. The message of John the Baptist is crystal clear that 'Repentance' is the Way to prepare for the coming of the Lord into our lives. God sees each one of us through and through. The message of 'Repentance' is central to our conversion. We are so blessed to have the Sacrament of Reconciliation as a way of healing ourselves from the wounds created within us by Sin. I pray that each of us, as individuals and as parish communities, may repent and allow the grace and peace of Jesus to come and dwell and make a home within each one of us. We pray for peace throughout the world.

Blessings.

Yours in Christ Jesus,

Fr. Francis J. Kalapurackal

VOCATIONS MINISTRY

Each weekend a parishioner has the opportunity to take home a Traveling Vocations Cross prayer kit and commit to daily prayer for a week. At the end of the week, simply bring the kit back to Mass for the next person to take home. This week Jim & Mary Bohney & family will take the kit. The kit contains a small wood cross to set on your table as a reminder of the need for more people to answer God's call to a religious vocation, prayer guides, and informational booklets and books about vocations. A sign up sheet is in the Social Hall, or contact John Griffin at 317-554-7388. Visit www.heargodscall.com

The Youth of St. Thomas More would like to extend a BIG Thank You for your support (spiritually and financially) in sending us to The National Catholic Youth Conference. This conference was a good mix of prayer, Holy Spirit, Eucharist, knowledge and good ole Catholic fun. Here are a few quotes from people attending:
Pete Majeski: The keynote speaker from Rwanda. The cross she carried and the faith she had was so inspiring.
Emily Murrey: The emcee's presentation on scripture. It made me realize how I need to keep scripture close to me every day.
Matthew Majeski: The magician, his connection to optical illusion and faith.
Calvin Craig: The sense of community. How 20,000 people can gather in one place with the same beliefs. No one judged any one else.
Nate Buckner: Fr. Tony and his students. This breakout was on racism. It woke me up to the ignorance out there.
Davis Hall: Fr Tony's breakout was a real eye opener. I had never really thought about the realism of racism.
Allison Bertram: Eucharist Adoration and then how everyone went down and knelt by the stage to get closer to Jesus.
Alex Murrey: Mark Hart's speech on being open about your faith in public.
Isabell Sully: Eucharistic Adoration was so powerful
Marianne Hawkins: This was my 9th NCYC and it always astounds me that kids can be and are full of the Holy Spirit. NCYC is a time when that can be released. I always gain new insights to teens and confirms my belief in the young church. Thanks for all your support and prayers.

STM Pantry and Changes at Churches in Mission

Our St. Vincent de Paul committee has made changes to our pantry. We are now offering only hygiene products and cleaning products. This change has come about due to the changes at Churches in Mission (CIM). Churches in Mission has changed its food assistance policy making food assistance available once a week to their clients. Many times CIM runs low on cleaning supplies and hygiene items. We donated our food items to CIM and will now focus our pantry on hygiene and cleaning items. This will allow us to use more of our monies to meet the needs of our clients rather than spend monies on pantry food items that are not in demand due to local changes.

Also an update on other donations to St. Vincent de Paul or CIM. Our committee DOES NOT accept clothing or household items. There is a donation box in the parking lot at St. Ann's should you wish to donate items that are not accepted by Churches in Mission. You are also able to take your donation to SVdP downtown. There is no pickup for SVdP in this area. Presently Churches in Mission is only accepting new and gently used clothing of business and business casual wear and will only accept such donations on Mondays from 9-12 and Thursdays from 6-8. Items left outside their building will be disposed of due to contamination by weather and pest.

Jan Russell-Musters continues to collect clothing items for her outreach to the prison. Clothing for the men must meet strict guidelines. They need jeans and casual pants...no dress pants; plain sweaters; plain sweatshirts; jackets and/or coats (no dress coats or suits); polo shirts; t-shirts short or long sleeved; new underwear and socks; shoes - athletic or casual not dress; no belts or suspenders of any kind. THERE CAN BE NO LOGOS OF SPORTS OR COMPANY NAMES ON ANY OF THE CLOTHING. The prison is thankful for STM donations. Please leave these in the gym for Jan.

PLEASE BRING CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE GIFTS DECEMBER 7 AND 8

Everyone should bring their wrapped gifts to church BY December 7 and 8 and place them to the left of the altar. The gifts will be sorted by family number and placed in bags after the 9:30 Mass on December 15. The committee can use your help in sorting the packages after Mass. This usually takes 30 minutes. The gifts will be delivered by December 21. If you would like to help with the delivery of the gifts, please contact Mike Duffy (317.757.9141).

If you are unable to return your packages this weekend, please contact Mike Duffy as soon as possible. Place in a bag, mark it "Giving Tree" and bring it to the church office Tuesday to Friday 8:00 am to 1:00 pm.

ALL GIFTS BEING RETURNED TO THE PARISH OFFICE AFTER THIS WEEKEND MUST BE DROPPED OFF NO LATER THAN DECEMBER 11!! (Again, please return gifts by December 7/8—the December 11 date is meant only for those who truly cannot make the December 7/8 deadline.)

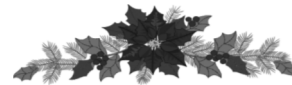

GOD BLESS EACH AND EVERY ONE OF YOU!!!

STILL SEVERAL ORANGE TAGS AVAILABLE FOR FOOD DONATIONS!

Please take one (or several) to purchase items for the St. Ann Christmas Food Baskets.

Bring the tags and items back by December 15 and place in the SVDP box now located in the narthex. God Bless!

ST. ANN CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Parish is getting together on DECEMBER 15 AT 11:45 AM to celebrate Christmas and EVERYONE is invited.

There will be cookies for children to decorate!

The Parish Council is providing the chicken. Please bring your favorite dish!

A SIGNUP SHEET IS ON THE BULLETIN BOARD IN THE HALL.
