WE DEDICATE THIS BULLETIN IN MEMORY OF
FATHER MARK GOTTEMOELLER
6/10/1949-12/15/2017

Christmas 2017

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

This past week has been an extraordinary week with lots of surprises—with the passing of Rev. Fr. Mark Gottemoeller. It was so gracious of all in the parish to share the grief with the family of Father Mark by your presence at the visitation and the funeral services. We as a parish family extend our deepest sympathy and prayers to the family members, close friends of Rev. Fr. Mark. In his death we have lost a good friend, elder brother, a spiritual leader, a friend and peer of those who needed someone to be at their side in life situations where others dare not to reach out. I personally lost an older brother who backed me up in the last two years of my ministry here at STM. May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in Peace. This bulletin we DEDICATE TO FR MARK.

The good news for us is Christmas is here, reassuring us of His ever new love. I most appreciate all of you for responding to our call to the sacrament of Reconciliation. The priests from the West Deanery who were present for the sacrament of Reconciliation were pleasantly surprised to see so many attending our Advent penance service. Thank you so much! The hand of God is upon this parish and He wants to bless each of us particularly at Christmas and the New Year to come. Pope Francis says: “Christmas is usually a noisy party. We could use a bit of silence, to hear the voice of love. Christmas is you, when you decide to be born again each day and let God into your soul. The Christmas pine is you when you resist vigorous winds and difficulties of life. The Christmas decorations are you, when your virtues are colors that adorn your life. The Christmas bell is you, when you call, gather, and seek to unite. You are also a Christmas light, when you illuminate with your life the path of others with kindness, patience, joy and generosity. The Christmas angels are you, when you sing to the world a message of peace, justice and love. The Christmas star is you, when you lead someone to meet the Lord. You are also the wisemen, when you give the best you have, no matter to whom—The Christmas gift is you, when you forgive and reestablish peace, even when you suffer”.

May this Christmas be one that reestablishes our sonship/ownership of the Kingdom of God by receiving the promised Love in the silent and holy night.

I would like to thank everyone for reaching out to comfort the family of Fr. Mark and seek continued prayers for his soul and his family. I would like to thank Richard Tomaszewski, John Phillips and Larry Janeczek for decorating the church so beautifully for Christmas. God Bless them.

Yours sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Francis Joseph Kalapurackal

We are Called
 Saturday, January 13
 9:00am– 4:00pm

In the past couple of years we have had the privilege to answer our Baptismal Call to serve STM and grow in relationship with our Lord with the direction of Fr. Francis. We have grown in faith and fellowship through Weekly Mass, Adoration, Prayer, Bible Study, The Jubilee, Connected In Spirit, Forward in Faith Campaign, Parish Mission: Regaining the Virtue of Faith, Applefest, Knights of Columbus, Woman of STM, Holy Spirit Groups, Clinic, New Evangelization Ministry, RCIA, Adult Faith Formation, St. Vincent De-Paul, Commissions, Committees and many more opportunities. We are now being Called to explore how to continue to live out our Baptismal Call in a new way!

We are Called
Are you wondering ...
 How do I talk to my children about God?
 How do I invite my grown children back to church?
 How do I become more confident in my relationship with God?
 How do I describe my journey with Jesus?
 How do other people feel so comfortable talking about the bible?
 How do I learn to pray more often or pray in new ways?
 I am worried about my neighbors, friends and family... “I wish they start coming to church and understand that God loves them!”

Join Us on Saturday, January 13
9:00am– 4:00pm
 We invite all adults of STM More to a day of fun, fellowship and formation.
