SECOND SUNDAY

OF Advent

A voice cries out:
In the desert prepare the way of the Lord!
Make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God!
Every valley shall be filled in,
every mountain and hill shall be made low.

Isaiah 40:3-4

DECEMBER 10, 2017

December 10, 2017 Second Sunday of Advent

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The message running through the readings on the second Sunday of Advent is to ‘Prepare the Way for the Lord’ and His coming. Prophet Isaiah, approximately 600 years before the birth of Christ, implicitly mentions John the Baptist’s work of preparing for the coming of the Messiah. The world was waiting for the redeemer who would expiate for their sins. All we need to do is to prepare our hearts and our lives so that we are ready to receive him in grace. The best way to prepare is to cleanse ourselves from sin by approaching the Sacrament of Reconciliation, making sacrifices and reaching out to the needy. Jesus is the good news for all—particularly the weaker, the vulnerable, and most of all, the sinners. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever (Heb 13:8). He comes to bring the good news of salvation, bringing joy, peace and prosperity to all. May the joy which we await be preceded by due preparation of our hearts and our lives. Let us make the best of the opportunity we have for the Advent Penance Service on December 19th. God Bless You all.

Yours sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Francis Joseph Kalapurackal Administrator

in the Good Shepherd Room

Join us this Advent as we take 3 weeks to prepare ourselves for the coming of Christ! Are we ready for the King? Are our hearts ready to receive our Savior? The four weeks leading up to Christmas mark the beginning of the Western Church's liturgical year. Advent is our time for reflection, meditation and preparation.

Catholic Scripture Study Advent Bible Study CSS- Advent

This year the Sunday gospel readings at Mass come from the Gospel of Mark. Our engagement with this gospel, woven with other parts of Scripture, like Isaiah, 1 Corinthians, and 2 Samuel creates a beautiful tapestry of prepared anticipation for the Christ Child coming to the world and into our hearts. This study follows the Catholic Scripture Study format but concentrates on the Sunday lectionary readings and incorporates the ancient method of Lectio Divina (praying the scriptures to us personally through scripture).

How do I talk to my children about God?
How do I invite my grown children back to church?
How do I become more confident in my relationship with God?
How do I describe my journey with Jesus?

How do I learn to pray more often or pray in new ways?

You might be thinking: "What's this all about? Why would I want to go to a Dirty Santa Party when we can simply give each other gifts?". That's a fair question that deserves an answer. You see, it's easy for 4 or 5 people to buy each other gifts, but when the group of people attending a party grows to 30 people it's just not practical. So, we have a fun alternative! With a Dirty Santa gift exchange, each person has to buy only one gift, for not particular person unlike in Secret Santa and at the end of the exchange everyone ends up with a random gift they "won" during the exchange. Now, I said "won" but in reality the process involves a fierce swapping and stealing from each other. This process can get really exciting, which
