THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

June 18, 2017

*The bread that we break,
is it not a participation
in the body of Christ?*

*Because the loaf
of bread is one,
we, though many,
are one body,
for we all partake
of the one loaf.*

Corpus Christi

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The feast of Corpus Christi, also known as the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, is celebrated on the Sunday after the feast of the Most Holy Trinity. Jesus, who instituted this great sacrament as an expression of his unconditional love and his desire to be with us, took this most humble form to live among us forever. The institution of the Corpus Christi as a feast in the Christian calendar resulted from forty years of work on the part of Juliana of Liege, a 12th century Norbertine canoness born in 1191 in Liege, Belgium. Gradually, this feast was celebrated in the diocese of Liege on the Thursday after the feast of the Holy Trinity. However, it was Pope Urban IV in 1264 who instituted the solemnity of Corpus Christi on the Thursday after Pentecost for the entire Latin Rite by the Papal bull 'Transiturus de hoc Mundo'. When Pope Pius V revised the General Roman Calendar, the feast was moved to Thursday after Trinity Sunday. The feast was moved to Sunday by Pope Francis in 2017 to strengthen participation of the faithful for procession and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. We have the solemn procession with the Blessed Sacrament after the 10:45 am Mass which I invite you all to join and receive the blessing for you and your family. May the Lord in the Eucharist bind us in his unconditional love, heal us of our brokenness and remove every fear and doubt.

I would like to thank everyone who took the trouble to participate in the Ministry Fair and those who signed up to serve in various ministries.

I would appreciate your prayers as I head to a week-long retreat in Chicago. Be assured of my prayers for all of you.

God Bless You All.
